

Carlos Valencia

Carlos Valencia has inspired millions to follow the way of the tiger. Through years of rigorous comedy research at Carlos Valencia World Headquarters R&D Institute, Valencia's line of cutting edge jokes have set new standards in stand-up quality. His comedic leadership in the field of enhanced joke telling techniques manages to make audiences laugh at rates that meet and often exceed the industry average. Carlos' patented atomic comedic timing has been tested to far exceed the latest precision standards set forth by the Congrès Internationale de Comédie in Bhutan, Asia. His state-of-the-art timing accuracy is designed to lose no more than one millisecond every 273 years. Carlos tolerates no less than utmost comedic operating excellence for guaranteed customer success.

"Keep your eye out for Valencia..."

-The Charlotte Observer

Carlos spews clever and original jokes at the audience like the flying innards of a smashed watermelon. His appreciation for the art of comedy has led him to consistently win over the appreciation of both veteran comics and comedy audiences nationwide. Carlos' stand-up prowess is only matched by his skillful use of hyphenated hyperbolic clichés. Do not miss the once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to witness the next-big-thing in comedy. He's one-in-a-million! Ask your doctor if a dose of Carlos Valencia is right for you (Side-effects may include Dry Mouth, Hairy Nipple, and Death).
